Happy Sunday!

It is great to be in the season of Advent! Last Sunday began the new liturgical year as we anticipate the coming of Jesus Christ in Bethlehem. The prayers of the Mass, the antiphons, and readings are full of joyful expectation. Last weekend in my homily I mentioned a few books that might be helpful Advent spiritual reading. The first, and maybe my favorite, is by Joseph Ratzinger (Pope Benedict XVI). It is his short book "Jesus of Nazareth: The Infancy Narratives". This is a wonderful book diving into the infancy narratives of St. Matthew and St. Luke. Because of its length, it is very possible to finish in the Advent season. Another book that only touches briefly on the infancy narratives but is still very powerful is Romano Guardini's classic, "The Lord". The book as a whole follows the life of Jesus in the Gospels and is very rich in content. Similarly, Fulton Sheen's book, "The Life of Christ" is another volume I recommend that comments on the Gospels from beginning to end. Another author, whom I greatly admire and you've heard me mention before is Erasmo Leiva-Merikakis. His first volume of "Fire of Mercy: Heart of the Word" begins by exploring the infancy narrative according to St. Matthew. His work is clearly the fruit of someone who has prayed often with the Gospels. I of course recommend reading and re-reading the infancy narratives of St. Matthew and St. Luke themselves. If you prefer to read them with a commentary, the Navarre Commentary is always very insightful.

This weekend after all the Masses we are hosting a retirement celebration for Jean Green. I mentioned a few weeks ago that Jean has decided to retire after 17 years working in our wonderful parish. She has been responsible for coordinating weddings, funerals, liturgies, church decorating, and much more. We are so grateful for all that she has done for the parish these many years. Please stop by Santa Maria Hall after Mass this weekend to wish her well in this next step of her journey and thank her for her many years of service.

Have a great week and know of my prayers!

In Christ,

Fr. Connealy

WELCOME VISITORS

¡Feliz domingo!

¡Es genial estar en la temporada de Adviento! El domingo pasado comenzó el nuevo año litúrgico mientras anticipamos la venida de Jesucristo en Belén. Las oraciones de la Misa, las antífonas y las lecturas están llenas de expectativas alegres. El fin de semana pasado, en mi homilía, mencioné algunos libros que podrían ser útiles como lectura espiritual de Adviento. El primero, y quizás mi favorito, es de Joseph Ratzinger (Papa Benedicto XVI). Es su libro breve "Jesús de Nazaret: las narraciones de la infancia". Este es un libro maravilloso que se sumerge en las narraciones de la infancia de San Mateo y San Lucas. Por su longitud, es muy posible que termine en el tiempo de Adviento. Otro libro que solo toca brevemente las narraciones de la infancia pero que sigue siendo muy poderoso es el clásico de Romano Guardini, "El Señor". El libro en su conjunto sigue la vida de Jesús en los Evangelios y es muy rico en contenido. De manera similar, el libro de Fulton Sheen, "La vida de Cristo" es otro volumen que recomiendo que comenta sobre los Evangelios de principio a fin. Otro autor, a quien admiro mucho y me has oído mencionar antes, es Erasmo Leiva-Merikakis. Su primer volumen de "Fuego de Misericordia: Corazón de la Palabra" comienza explorando la narrativa de la infancia según San Mateo. Su obra es claramente el fruto de alguien que ha orado muchas veces con los Evangelios. Yo, por supuesto, recomiendo leer y releer las narraciones de la infancia de San Mateo y San Lucas mismos. Si prefieres leerlos comentados, el Comentario de Navarra siempre es muy esclarecedor.

Este fin de semana, después de todas las misas, celebraremos la jubilación de Jean Green. Mencioné hace unas semanas que Jean decidió retirarse después de 17 años trabajando en nuestra maravillosa parroquia. Ha sido responsable de coordinar bodas, funerales, liturgias, decoración de la iglesia y mucho más. Estamos muy agradecidos por todo lo que ha hecho por la parroquia durante estos años. Pase por el salón Santa María después de la Misa este fin de semana para desearle lo mejor en este próximo paso de su viaje y agradecerle por sus muchos años de servicio.

¡Que tengan una excelente semana y conozcan mis oraciones!

En Cristo,

Padre Connealy

¿POR QUÉ DEBO SER ADORADOR?

¡Hay muchas razones! Lo más impovrtante es visitar y pasar tiempo con Nuestro Señor Jesucristo que es siempre. Presente en la Sagrada Eucaristía (también llamado Santísimo Sacramento). Como cualquier relación, lo que ponemos en es lo que vamos a volver y nuestro Señor no está superado en la generosidad! Como un adorador comprometido también tiene la increíble responsabilidad de mantener al Señor no sólo compañía sino también seguro en la Capilla de la Adoración. Los feligreses y otros generalmente se comprometen a una hora (o más) por semana. Venir a la adoración es una manera perfecta de acercarse cada vez más a Jesús e intensificar nuestra vida espiritual. ¡Que Cristo sea siempre Rey de nuestros corazones! Challenge by Supreme Chaplain Archbishop William E. Lori:

"For it is through the Holy Spirit that this child has been conceived in her. She will bear a son and you are to name him Jesus, because he will save his people from their sins."

Does the Advent season sometimes seem to be about things other than Christ? Amid breathless advertisements, urgent warnings about the waning number of shopping days and the hassle of making holiday plans, there's a danger that Jesus' birth will be neglected or forgotten. Let's make it a priority to remember what Christmas is about: The Son of God became man in order to die for our sins and rise again, so that we could be freed from our slavery to sin and also rise to new life.

CATHOLIC TRIVIA…

1. Who traditionally uses the 3-barred Cross in their liturgy and devotions?
2. What title was given to Henry VIII of England by Pope Leo X in 1521?
3. What were the 3 official languages used by the Western Church for divine worship from the time of Christ until Vatican II?

The answers are in this bulletin.
