A LETTER FROM OUR PASTOR

Happy Sunday in July!

This week in our Sacred Scriptures at the Holy Mass, we are invited to look at God's way of ruling the world and then to imitate it in a way that allows for human flourishing in life and love. God's ways are really not harsh, indifferent or quick to destroy, thankfully. He is sovereign, yet mild. He gives room for repentance. We see this through our Blessed Lord as He shows that the Kingdom grows in real fields with real weeds and that the right response is not panic, rage or shortcuts. Rather, he offers a beautiful goodness guided by hope.

In the Wisdom reading, we are struck with a profound truth about God's care and his attentiveness. He cares for all people and is not limited to a select few. His providence reaches everywhere, including places where people suffer unjustly or where evil appears to go unchecked. God does not ignore the wrongdoing of this world, but that His rule is righteous and therefore never uses cruelty to remedy the situation. Our eyes are open to God's strength as the source of righteousness and His sovereignty is ordered toward sparing, not destroying. A severe punishment can be done, but He is merciful. That mercy in which we receive is not weakness. In His patience He opens the possibility of repentance as He is patience with us in which our hearts can turn back to Him.

Let's go to the fields with our Blessed Lord Jesus. The Kingdom of heaven is like a landowner who sows good seed. Then the disruption came from the enemy, "While everyone was asleep his enemy came and sowed weeds all through the wheat, and then went off." In this parable, evil often enters not by a loud spectacle first, but by neglect such as the moments when people stop watching, stop praying and stop guarding the heart. When the weeds appear, extreme measures are caused by panic. Here is where we remember the patience of God. Evil is not being excused here. It is a warning against the kind of fixing that destroys what is good. The Lord teaches that some harms require careful timing, wise discernment and a refusal to confuse zeal with violence.

The Kingdom of Heaven grows through patience waiting on God and His Divine Providence and through a hidden and steady transformation. May our Lord continue to watch over your household and continue to be united to the Heart of Jesus!

Father Cruz

¡Feliz domingo de julio!

Esta semana, en las Sagradas Escrituras de la Santa Misa, se nos invita a contemplar la forma en que Dios gobierna el mundo y a imitarla de manera que permita el florecimiento humano en la vida y en el amor. Afortunadamente, los caminos de Dios no son severos, indiferentes ni propensos a la destrucción. Él es soberano, pero también clemente. Da espacio para el arrepentimiento. Vemos esto a través de nuestro Señor, quien nos muestra que el Reino crece en campos reales con maleza real, y que la respuesta correcta no es el pánico, la ira ni los atajos. Más bien, Él nos ofrece una hermosa bondad guiada por la esperanza.

En la lectura de la Sabiduría, nos llama la atención una profunda verdad sobre el cuidado de Dios y su atención. Él se preocupa por todas las personas y no se limita a unos pocos elegidos. Su providencia llega a todas partes, incluso a los lugares donde la gente sufre injustamente o donde el mal parece campar a sus anchas. Dios no ignora las injusticias de este mundo, pero su gobierno es justo y, por lo tanto, nunca recurre a la crueldad para remediar la situación. Nuestros ojos se abren a la fuerza de Dios como fuente de justicia, y su soberanía está orientada a perdonar, no a destruir. Podría imponer un castigo severo, pero Él es misericordioso. Esa misericordia que recibimos no es debilidad. En su paciencia, Él nos abre la posibilidad del arrepentimiento, pues es paciente con nosotros para que nuestros corazones puedan volver a Él.

Vayamos a los campos con nuestro bendito Señor Jesús. El Reino de los cielos es como un terrateniente que siembra buena semilla. Entonces llegó la perturbación por parte del enemigo: "pero mientras los trabajadores dormían, llegó un enemigo del dueño, sembró cizaña entre el trigo y se marchó." En esta parábola, el mal a menudo no entra primero con un espectáculo ruidoso, sino a través de la negligencia, como en esos momentos en que la gente deja de vigilar, deja de orar y deja de cuidar su corazón. Cuando aparecen las malas hierbas, el pánico lleva a tomar medidas extremas. Aquí es donde recordamos la paciencia de Dios. No se está justificando al mal aquí. Es una advertencia contra ese tipo de soluciones que destruyen lo que es bueno. El Señor nos enseña que algunos males requieren un momento oportuno, un discernimiento sabio y negarse a confundir el celo con la violencia.

El Reino de los Cielos crece a través de la paciencia con la que esperamos en Dios y en Su Divina Providencia, y a través de una transformación oculta y constante. ¡Que nuestro Señor siga velando por su familia y que sigan unidos al Corazón de Jesús!

PARISH REGISTRATION

Question:
Why is it so important that we register in a parish? Isn't it good enough that we go to Mass?

Answer:
Registration is the official way we join a parish community. Many people think that because they attend a particular parish they automatically belong. At times, young adults who have moved away for years think they are still signed up under their parents. But membership requires signing up, formally enrolling yourself in a parish. Registration is a commitment to a community, a way to be included in the religious, social, and ministerial activities of your parish. Your registration affects the parish in many ways. Census numbers can determine how many priests are assigned to a church, what benefits and obligations the community has to the diocese, and how Masses, Confessions, and devotions are planned and scheduled.

Registration shows you belong. It is also necessary for certain benefits, like scheduling sacraments, obtaining sponsor certificates, and getting donation statements for taxes. Most importantly, it lets the parish count on you, to call on you to assist in its mission. Registering in your parish is a statement of faith and confidence in the life and work of your parish.

Please take a moment today to register at www.stjoanofarc.com or scan the QR code below. For questions please call the parish office at 602-867-9171

LEGION OF MARY

Enthronement of the Sacred Heart of Jesus in the Home

What is it?

It is a recognition of the Sacred Heart as King of the family. By a symbolic act, which actually is the enthroning of a Picture or statue of the Sacred Heart in a place of honor in the home, the family acknowledges that Christ is the King and loving Master of the home and pledges to live in union with His Divine Heart by love and by obedience to His Commandments. Invite the Legion of Mary to arrange YOUR Sacred Heart Enthronement! Call Rosemary 602-690-7702.

And Mary came to my home!

Hosting her was not hard at all, like I thought. We cleaned up extra for visitors and made a nice spot for her, but that was it. Mom and Dad were super serious about being careful around the statue. Mom kept saying she was scared the boys would throw a ball and break her. But guess what? They were actually really good around Mary. Every day, Mom, Dad and I prayed the rosary. Sometimes it was all of us together, and sometimes we said it by ourselves. You should totally do it! Having Mary in your home brings everyone closer, helps you learn your prayers better, and just makes your house feel calmer at the end of the day.
I'm so glad that Mary came to my house!

REFLECTIONS

By Colleen Jurkiewicz

The Weeds We Need

Driving up my street in late spring, you can see which yard is mine from a whole block away: it's the one covered in dandelions. And I like it that way.

I fear neither my husband's shame nor the snarky comments of neighbors: I will never apologize for my dandelion-filled yard. "It's for the pollinators," I say, but it's a total lie. I just think it looks lovely. Who doesn't like a splash of yellow after a long, dreary winter?

People call dandelions "weeds," but it's just not true. Weeds are, by definition, any plant growing where it isn't wanted. A rosebush is a weed, if it's in the middle of a cornfield. I want my dandelions. Plants that are commonly considered weeds can even have beneficial properties. They attract pollinators, for instance, and they promote nutrient cycling, whereby soil health is improved.

We all have metaphorical "weeds" in the garden of our lives. I certainly do: facets of my personality I loathe, realities of my life I resent, limitations in my abilities I dread— these are my weeds, and their roots run deep, coiling closely around those of the plants I try to cultivate. But if I could rid my garden of any one of these weeds, would it really benefit me? And if I examined them all closely, could I tell them apart — the blessing from the curse, the struggle from the triumph?

One day, it will all become clear: what is the wheat, and what is the weed. We will be put to our ultimate purpose, and we will see ourselves for what we are meant to be.

Until then, we need the weeds. It's not harvest time yet.
