17TH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

"The kingdom of heaven is like a treasure buried in a field, which a person finds and hides again, and out of joy goes and sells all that he has and buys that field." - Mt 13:44

"El Reino de los cielos se parece a un tesoro escondido en un campo. El que lo encuentra lo vuelve a esconder y, lleno de alegría, va y vende cuanto tiene y compra aquel campo". - Mt 13, 44

A LETTER FROM OUR PASTOR

Happy Sunday!

The dirt lot on the corner of 38th Street and Greenway in 1979 tells a story of a treasured land with a vision that will one day be built to worship God in the Holy Sacrifice of the Mass. Our Blessed Lord teaches that the Kingdom is like treasure and like a pearl. Precious items so valuable that joy moves the seeker to a radical reorientation of life. The treasures found here at Saint Joan of Arc parish are the riches of salvation, wisdom and knowledge. All this is hidden in the hearts of the people, YOU! All is hidden at first in faith and safeguarded in the heart. When the fruits blossom, a beautiful family of faith comes together with all our brokenness, suffering and sacrifice to give the very best to God in worship.

Our parish life becomes a family of faith when Christ becomes the household's chosen treasure. This extends beyond Sunday and Religious Education classes. The treasured Eucharistic Lord remains with you throughout the week and reorients one's life. As families make a sacrificial offering of one's income, we ask what does God and His Church receive in thanksgiving in which all is a gift. All this can be done with a mother and father who ask for God's discerning wisdom like Solomon. Placing God first above all as the treasure of one's household shows an immense amount of trust in Him.

May you join me in giving thanks to God for our parish, the many families before us who made the sacrifice in laying the foundations of the parish. Let's keep Christ as our treasure and be inspired to incorporate a joyful surrender where choosing Christ feels like "selling" lesser priorities.

May the peace of Christ be with you all!

Father Cruz

¡Feliz domingo!

El terreno sin pavimentar en la esquina de la calle 38 y Greenway, en 1979, cuenta la historia de una tierra preciada con la visión de que algún día se construiría allí un lugar para adorar a Dios en el Santo Sacrificio de la Misa. Nuestro Señor nos enseña que el Reino es como un tesoro y como una perla. Objetos tan valiosos que la alegría lleva a quien los busca a una reorientación radical de su vida. Los tesoros que se encuentran aquí, en la parroquia de Santa Juana de Arco, son las riquezas de la salvación, la sabiduría y el conocimiento. Todo esto está oculto en los corazones de las personas, ¡en TÚ! Al principio, todo está oculto en la fe y guardado en el corazón. Cuando los frutos florecen, una hermosa familia de fe se une con todas nuestras fragilidades, sufrimientos y sacrificios para ofrecer lo mejor a Dios en adoración.

Nuestra vida parroquial se convierte en una familia de fe cuando Cristo se vuelve el tesoro elegido de la familia. Esto va más allá del domingo y de las clases de educación religiosa. El preciado Señor eucarístico permanece con ustedes durante toda la semana y reorienta la vida de cada uno. A medida que las familias hacen una ofrenda sacrificial de sus ingresos, nos preguntamos qué reciben Dios y su Iglesia en acción de gracias, ya que todo es un regalo. Todo esto se puede lograr con una madre y un padre que pidan a Dios la sabiduría para discernir, como Salomón. Poner a Dios en primer lugar por encima de todo como el tesoro del hogar demuestra una inmensa confianza en Él.

Que se unan a mí para dar gracias a Dios por nuestra parroquia y por las numerosas familias que nos precedieron y que hicieron el sacrificio de sentar las bases de la parroquia. Mantengamos a Cristo como nuestro tesoro y dejémonos inspirar para incorporar una entrega gozosa, en la que elegir a Cristo se sienta como "vender" prioridades menores.

¡Que la paz de Cristo esté con todos ustedes!

Padre Cruz

17th Sunday in Ordinary Time / July 26, 2026

First Reading:

"Give your servant, therefore, an understanding heart to judge your people and to distinguish right from wrong. For who is able to govern this vast people of yours?" (1 Kgs 3:9)

Psalms:

Lord, I love your commands. (Ps 119)

Second Reading:

We know that all things work for good for those who love God, who are called according to his purpose. (Rom 8:28)

Gospel:

"The kingdom of heaven is like a treasure buried in a field, which a person finds and hides again, and out of joy goes and sells all that he has and buys that field." (Mt 13:44)

Blessing for Our Parish

Dear God,

Pour Your blessing upon our parish, in need of Your renewal and inspiration. Prune the places that need pruning, and pour fresh grace and courage into our midst. Help us to find You and, with great joy, follow You wholeheartedly.

Amen.

Everyday Stewardship

My wife is a big Dave Ramsey fan. She loves when he tells people that in order to pay down their debt they need to sell so many of their possessions that the kids think that even they can be sold for the right price. He definitely sees earthly possessions as simply tools to be used and not "possessed." This is a tough, countercultural message for sure in the eyes of the average American. Too often, our self-worth is derived from our wealth and the items we own. The size of our house, the brand of our car, and the quantity of our belongings are all gauges of success in our world. For Ramsey, not only can you not truly own anything if you owe money to others, it belongs to God anyway and is only given to us as stewards.

Could you sell all you have right now? Could you walk away from all that you have amassed and be truly free? When Jesus speaks of the merchant who sells all he has to obtain a pearl of great price, he calls us to see the pearl as the kingdom of heaven. Nothing on earth can rival the value of the kingdom. If that is true, why is it so hard to surrender everything to God to obtain it? It can be fear that keeps us from stepping out in faith. It can be selfishness that prevents us from letting go. Whatever it is, we must face the fact that we are "possessed" by it. The good news is that God does not expect us to conquer this obstacle on our own. But with God, all things are possible.

EUCCHARISTIC ADORATION

WHY SHOULD I BE AN ADORER?

There are many reasons! Most importantly is to visit and spend time with Our Lord Jesus Christ who is ever present in the Holy Eucharist (also called the Blessed Sacrament). Like any relationship, what we put in is what we will get back and our Lord is not outdone in generosity! As a committed adorer you also have the amazing responsibility to keep the Lord not only company but also safe in the Adoration Chapel. Coming to adoration is a perfect way to draw ever closer to Jesus and to intensify our spiritual life.

Choosing Heaven

My children often ask me questions about Heaven. What does Heaven look like? Is there nighttime in Heaven? Do you get hungry in Heaven? Are there oceans in Heaven? Will we feel bored in Heaven?

My answer is almost always the same: "I can't tell you for sure." I guess I didn't realize how little we actually know about Heaven until I had kids who were obsessed with hearing the details.

But accepting human ignorance is liberating in a way, because it allows me to see clearly — and cling wholeheartedly to — the three things I do know for sure: Heaven is where God is, and Hell is where He isn't, and it's completely my decision where I want to be.

The choice, you see, is everything.

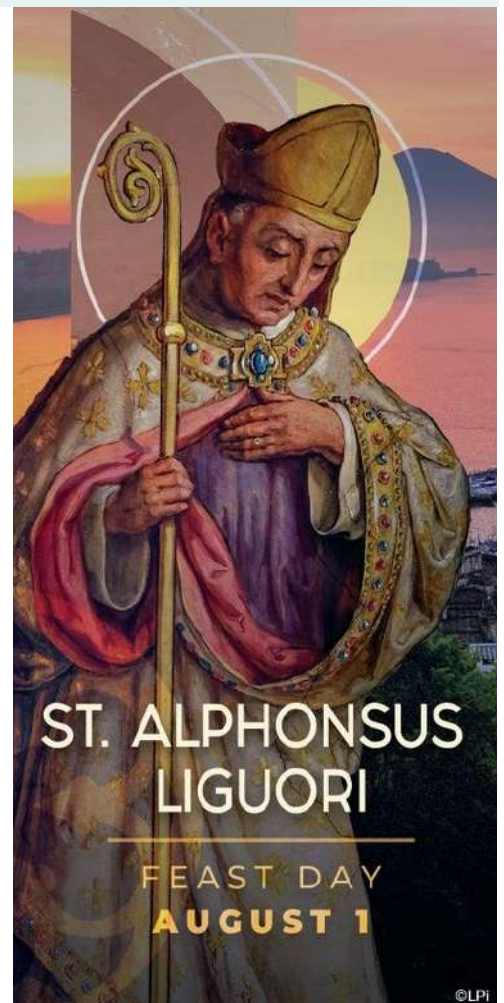

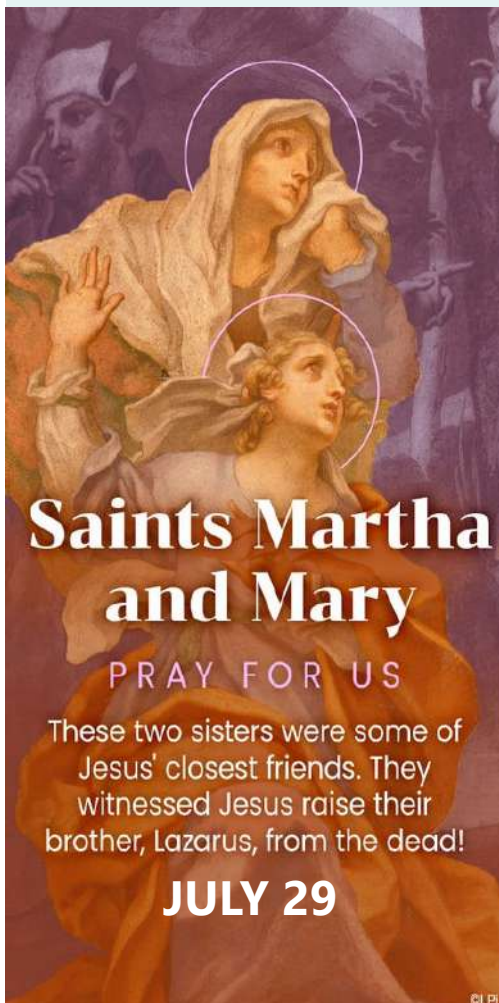

We need to pay attention to how Jesus describes the kingdom of Heaven in his parables. It is, he tells us, a treasure — but a treasure buried in a field owned by someone else. It is a beautiful pearl — and a very expensive pearl. It is a bountiful yield — one which must be carefully, even painstakingly sifted through.

It's so easy to imagine the delight of the man who finds the treasure, who encounters the pearl, who hauls the bursting net aboard, just as it is easy to call ourselves followers of Christ, to hang a Rosary from our windshield and go to Mass.

It's less easy, and a great deal more uncomfortable, to contemplate what comes next: the sacrifice, the commitment, the perseverance through uncertainty.

Heaven is an incredible stroke of luck — one that requires a good deal of follow-through. We can never earn it, but we must choose it. Again and again and again, we must choose it.

Marlee Bigsby

I am so grateful for my time of being the coordinator of youth ministry here at St. Joan of Arc. This community and my time of ministering to the young people has made my heart ready to serve.

That year and a half prepared me for my next step of mission. In August I will leave to become a Vagabond Missionary. This ministry reaches out to the lost and forgotten by providing youth ministry for inner city teens in low income communities. I cannot do this on my own and would love to have you join me on this mission!

Thank You!

How to support:

Please pray for me and those I will be serving. I cannot do this without the strength of our Lord.

In order to live and serve in Alabama, I will need a team of people who can help support me financially. If you are interested in making a donation and being a part of my financial support team please scan the QR code, email me, or come to the masses listed to hear more!

Peace of Mind
Starts with a
LIVING TRUST

WHAT A LIVING TRUST DOES:

- ✓ Avoids probate and costly delays
- ✓ Keeps your estate private (not a public court record)
- ✓ Ensures your wishes are carried out
- ✓ Protects heirs and simplifies asset transfer

WHY CHOOSE SAFEGUARD ESTATE PLANNING:

- ✓ Local, trusted, experienced professionals
- ✓ Personal attention
- ✓ Affordable, transparent pricing
- ✓ Support even after the trust is created
