A LETTER FROM OUR PASTOR

Happy All Saints Day!

Our parish family is a way of life shaped by the Beatitudes. We celebrated All Hallow's Eve in the best possible way as a parish. We do this by gratefully receiving what God gives and becoming more like Christ in our neighborhood. This mission extends by offering our lives in service of others. On All Saints' Day, our parish family sees that vision as a path of holiness for the whole community. The saints remind us of their friendship, intercession and model of life. When you take a closer look at their example, it encourages faithful people like yourselves to respond generously to God's call.

The Beatitudes do not name money, volunteer hours, or parish programs. They do, however, describe the kind of people who can build a community where gifts are shared and people are truly accompanied. Our Lord blesses the poor in spirit, the meek, those who hunger for righteousness, the merciful, the peacemakers, and those who suffer for what is right. Our parish can therefore ask not only, "What do we need people to do?" but "What kind of disciples is Christ forming among us?"

Is Christ your teacher? Is He the cause of your joy? Is He guiding your family to Himself? My hope is that everyone who walks through our doors is known, respected and invited into lasting friendships. The priesthood continues to be a blessing here at Saint Joan of Arc parish knowing that we are surrounded by so many wonderful families. On this All Saints' Day weekend my desire is this: We are a family of faith because Christ gathers us. We become a family of faith by receiving one another as God's children and offering our gifts so that each person may be accompanied toward life in Christ. The Beatitudes give the parish its pattern which is humble dependence on God, compassion for those who suffer, hunger for what is right, mercy, peacemaking, and fidelity even when it costs us. When we practice those virtues we will become a community in which people experience stewardship as love that is lived together as disciples of Christ.

Saint Joan of Arc, pray for us!

Father Cruz

¡Feliz Día de Todos los Santos!

Nuestra familia parroquial es un estilo de vida moldeado por las Bienaventuranzas. Celebramos la víspera de Todos los Santos de la mejor manera posible como parroquia. Lo hacemos al recibir con gratitud lo que Dios nos da y al asemejarnos más a Cristo en nuestro vecindario. Esta misión se extiende al ofrecer nuestras vidas al servicio de los demás. En el Día de Todos los Santos, nuestra familia parroquial ve esa visión como un camino de santidad para toda la comunidad. Los santos nos recuerdan su amistad, su intercesión y su modelo de vida. Cuando observamos más de cerca su ejemplo, esto anima a los fieles como ustedes a responder generosamente al llamado de Dios.

Las Bienaventuranzas no mencionan el dinero, las horas de voluntariado ni los programas parroquiales. Sin embargo, describen el tipo de personas que pueden construir una comunidad en la que se compartan los dones y se acompañe verdaderamente a las personas. Nuestro Señor bendice a los pobres de espíritu, a los mansos, a los que tienen hambre y sed de justicia, a los misericordiosos, a los pacificadores y a los que sufren por lo que es justo. Por lo tanto, nuestra parroquia puede preguntarse no solo: "¿Qué necesitamos que haga la gente?," sino también: "¿Qué tipo de discípulos está formando Cristo entre nosotros?."

¿Es Cristo tu maestro? ¿Es Él la fuente de tu alegría? ¿Está guiando a tu familia hacia Él? Mi esperanza es que todas las personas que cruzan nuestras puertas sean reconocidas, respetadas e invitadas a forjar amistades duraderas. El sacerdocio sigue siendo una bendición aquí en la parroquia de Santa Juana de Arco, sabiendo que estamos rodeados de tantas familias maravillosas. En este fin de semana del Día de Todos los Santos, mi deseo es este: somos una familia de fe porque Cristo nos reúne. Nos convertimos en una familia de fe al acoger unos a otros como hijos de Dios y al ofrecer nuestros dones para que cada persona sea acompañada hacia la vida en Cristo. Las Bienaventuranzas marcan el camino de la parroquia: la humilde dependencia de Dios, la compasión por quienes sufren, el anhelo de lo justo, la misericordia, la construcción de la paz y la fidelidad, incluso cuando nos cueste. Cuando practiquemos esas virtudes, nos convertiremos en una comunidad en la que las personas experimenten la administración como un amor que se vive juntos como discípulos de Cristo.

¡Santa Juana de Arco, ruega por nosotros!

Padre Cruz

EVERYDAY STEWARDSHIP

Everyday Saints

Growing up I thought saints were larger than life people with extraordinary stories. The thought that I could one day be revered as a saint by anyone seemed crazy. I wrote my essays on different saints every year in Catholic school right around All Saints Day. These were stories about people I had never met, and I assumed I would never meet anyone like them going forward.

Now that I am older, I realize that I was wrong back then and my immaturity of both mind and heart did not allow me to see that there are saints among us all the time. I have met many people in my life that I would call living saints. They are holy people who give of themselves to God and others in profound ways. Their relationship with Jesus is evident and they live their lives in ways that people witness the transformative power of love.

As a child I was wrong about saints, but even more importantly, I didn't fully realize that all of us are called to be saints! Me, a saint? Holiness is not something simply studied in books. It is the way of life we are all called to live. The call comes from Jesus Christ and each of us must respond. If we are still thinking like children, we may choose to stay silent and live accordingly. If we are more mature in our faith then we might not only respond, we might one day have a school child write a report about us.

RELIGIOUS EDUCATION

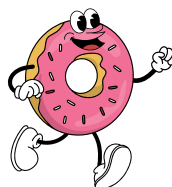

Dear fellow parishioners,

The families of Religious Education are hosting a diaper/baby wipes drive for moms going to the Life Choices clinic. We would love your help with this activity! We are looking for donations of new, unopened packages of diapers size 3-6 and/or baby wipes. We will be collecting these during the weekend of November 7 and 8. You can give this donation to a family you know from Religious Education that weekend, or we will have donation boxes by the Mass Passport table at each of the Masses that weekend. Or, you are welcome to drop the diapers/baby wipes off at the parish front office for Laura Gallant. Thank you for your support of this project!

"We are looking for a volunteer who is certified to teach Catechesis of the Good Shepherd, level 1 for the Religious Education program. If you have the CGS certification, and have or are willing to complete the Safe Environment training for the Diocese of Phoenix, please email Laura Gallant at Lgallant@stjoanofarc.com. Thank you!

Knights Korner

The Knights will host the "Donut Sunday Hospitality" event on November 8th in Santa Maria Hall, following the 8:30 and 10:30 am Masses.

All community members are cordially invited to attend, and donations are appreciated.

ANNUAL ADOPT A FAMILY PROJECT 2026!

The 25th Annual Adopt a Family Project had a solid first weekend of adopting families. Thank you to everyone who signed up. We still have a few more that need to be adopted. Please prayerfully consider stopping by the tables in the courtyard to adopt a family after Mass.

Notice Regarding Hall Rentals

Due to limited resources, we are temporarily suspending all new hall rental bookings. If your event is not currently on the calendar or has not been approved, we kindly ask for your patience and understanding during this time.

Our plan is to resume accepting new rental requests at a later date to be determined. The only exception will be funeral luncheons, which will be considered on a case-by-case basis as the need arises.

We sincerely appreciate your patience, understanding, and cooperation as we navigate these temporary limitations. Thank you for your continued prayers.

Called to Become Saints!

Today, on the Solemnity of All Saints, we begin National Vocation Awareness Week—a special time to focus on vocations to the priesthood, diaconate, and consecrated life, and to help young people listen for God's call.

This year we also celebrate the Year of St. Francis, whose life reminds us that holiness begins by listening to Christ and responding generously. Francis wrote,

"Incline the ear of your heart and obey the voice of the Son of God."

That invitation is meant for every Christian. God calls each of us to holiness, but He leads us there along different paths: marriage, priesthood, religious life, the diaconate, or generous single life. Our vocation is more than what we do; it is the particular way God calls us to love, serve, and ultimately become saints.

During Vocation Awareness Week, ask the Lord to help you live your own vocation more faithfully and encourage the young people in your life to ask a simple question with an open heart: "Lord, how are you calling me to become a saint?"

REFLECTIONS

By Colleen Jurkiewicz Dorman

The Survivors

"I'm no saint."

We hear people say this all the time, and what they usually mean is this: "I've made mistakes." Well, congratulations! You have taken that first crucial step to sainthood. You're well on your way!

A saint is not a person with fewer-than-average mistakes. A saint is a person with greater-than-average hope.

What is hope? Hope is certainty in the promises of God over the merits of man. Hope is what makes a Christian rejoice when he hears the litany of earthly trials described in the Beatitudes, because hope makes him see not the trials but the grace promised through them.

Hope remembers, always, that God is in the business of bringing life from death.

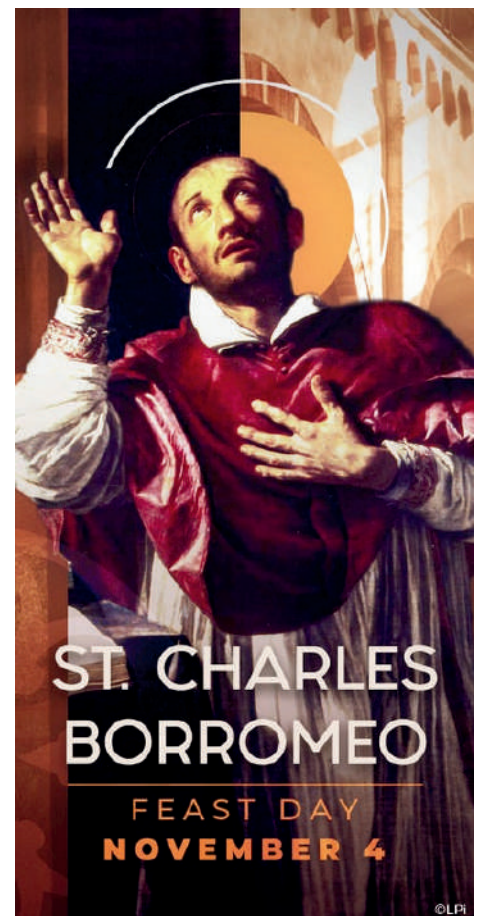

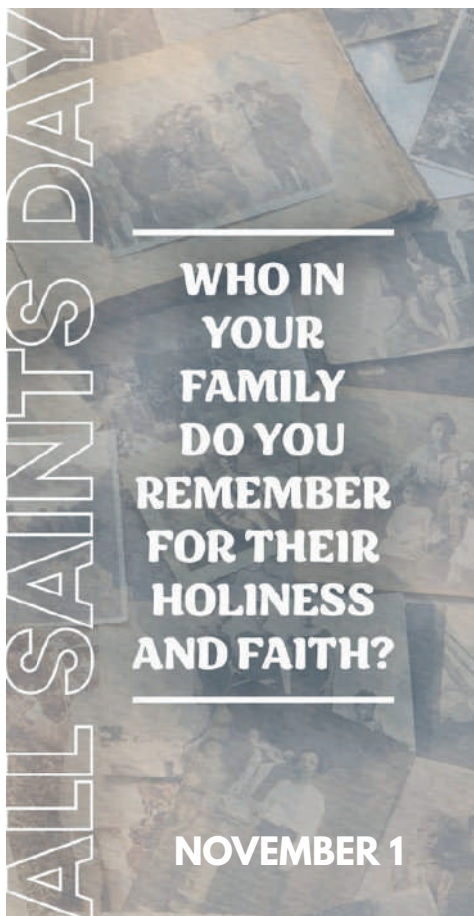

"These are the ones who have survived the time of great distress." (Rev. 7:14) This is how we hear the saints described in the Book of Revelation. We do not hear: "These are the ones who were perfect. These are the ones who had no faults. These are the ones who made good choices."

No — these are the ones who survived.

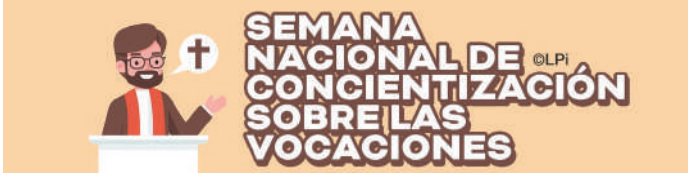

We are all buried in the rubble heap of sin and death. Many of us despair and cry, "We cannot climb out!" The saint is the one who has the hope to answer, "But Someone is coming. Just wait." The saint is the one who looks for the sliver of light, who reaches for it even when everyone else dismisses it as illusion.

Follow the saints. They know how to survive.

SAINTS OF THE WEEK

NOTICIAS

¿Por qué los católicos tienen en alta estima a los santos?

Pregunta: ¿Por qué los católicos tienen en alta estima a los santos?

Respuesta: Una de las afirmaciones de fe que hacemos al rezar el Credo Niceno y el Credo de los Apóstoles es que creemos en «la comunión de los santos». El Catecismo de la Iglesia Católica nos recuerda que esta comunión (que es otra forma de referirse a una comunidad) incluye a todos los fieles en la tierra, a las almas en el Purgatorio y a los hombres, mujeres y niños bienaventurados que están en el cielo. Esta enseñanza se fundamenta en nuestra creencia de que, a través del Bautismo, estamos unidos a Cristo y entre nosotros mediante vínculos que son incluso más fuertes que la muerte.

Por ello, desde los tiempos de la Iglesia primitiva, los cristianos han recurrido a otros creyentes —incluidos aquellos que nos han precedido— en busca de oración y ayuda, confiados en que Dios escucha las oraciones de todos sus hijos. Si bien pedimos a los santos (y los unos a los otros) que oren por nosotros y nos brinden su apoyo, debemos recordar que son ellos quienes se unen a nosotros en la oración; no obstante, es Dios quien nos bendice y nos santifica.

Al pensar en los santos que están en el cielo, debemos recordar que podemos acudir a ellos para pedir su intercesión y ayuda, ya que fueron seres humanos con limitaciones y defectos, al igual que nosotros. Esto significa que son capaces de comprender nuestras luchas, dudas, temores, alegrías y esperanzas. Pero, al conocer sus historias, también podemos empezar a reconocer que destacan en la historia de la Iglesia porque perseveraron en su compromiso de seguir a Cristo. Ya fueran personas ordenadas, religiosos o religiosas, mártires, esposos, esposas o incluso niños, todos ellos nos demuestran que la santidad es posible.

No solo podemos seguir su ejemplo, sino también beneficiarnos de su apoyo a través de la oración. Nuestra devoción a los santos, así como la gratitud por su testimonio, sus oraciones y su protección, también deben servirnos de inspiración, especialmente cuando tomamos conciencia de las necesidades de los demás o cuando otros nos piden que oremos por ellos. Estamos llamados a compartir las bendiciones que recibimos; esto forma parte, además, de nuestro propio camino de crecimiento en la santidad.
