GOSPEL MEDITATION

GOSPEL MEDITATION - ENCOURAGE DEEPER UNDERSTANDING OF SCRIPTURE

November 8, 2026
Thirty-Second Sunday in Ordinary Time
Matthew 25:1-13

My first instinct upon waking is to grab my phone and start scrolling. Sometimes I do it for 20 or 30 minutes, and it makes me feel distracted and agitated. I feel guilty, too, for wasting my first moments of the day. So recently, I committed those minutes to reading a book that would focus my mind on Jesus. I enjoy the fact that I am not scattering my attention as much. I feel more peaceful and focused on God.

In today's Gospel, Jesus speaks about attention. He contrasts wise and foolish virgins, and then sums up the teaching by saying, "Therefore, stay awake, for you know neither the day nor the hour" (Matthew 25:13). The basic currency of the human heart is attention. The foolish bridesmaids are not immoral or malicious; they are unfocused, distracted, and unprepared. They assume that borrowed oil will suffice, that someone else's readiness can make up for their own lack. But the attention which is love cannot be outsourced. A relationship with God requires personal attentiveness cultivated over time.

This Gospel leaves us with an honest question. What am I giving my attention to each day, and am I forming a heart that is awake, watchful, and ready to meet the Lord when He comes? How can I use key moments of my day to focus my attention where I need it to be?

— Father John Muir

MEDITACIÓN DEL EVANGELIO – ALENTAR UN ENTENDIMIENTO MÁS PROFUNDO DE LA ESCRITURA

8 de noviembre de 2026
XXXII Domingo del Tiempo Ordinario
Mateo 25:1-13

Estén listos y preparados: es el mensaje de este domingo, porque no se sabe ni el día ni la hora en que llega el Señor. Mostrar sabiduría y prudencia significa madurez en la vida. La parábola de las diez jóvenes, narrada por Jesús, demuestra ambas dimensiones: la humana y la divina. "Las descuidadas tomaron sus lámparas como estaban, sin llevar más aceite consigo. Las precavidas, en cambio, junto con las lámparas, llevaron sus botellas de aceite. Como el novio se demoraba en llegar, se adormecieron todas y, al fin, se quedaron dormidas" (Mateo 25:3-5). Esto significa que, estemos atentos, dormidos o despiertos, Dios colabora en nuestros proyectos.

No podemos detener el tiempo; lo mejor es estar listos, llevando un comportamiento adecuado, alimentando nuestra propia lámpara con la fe y la sensatez, acudiendo a los sacramentos, sobre todo a la Reconciliación y la Eucaristía. Dios provee la sabiduría si buscamos con ahínco alimentarnos de ella. "Sale al encuentro de los que la quieren conocer; el que por ella se levantó temprano casi no tendrá que esforzarse: la hallará sentada a su puerta" (Sabiduría 6:13-15). ¿De qué está llena la lámpara de mi vida? ¿Qué tipo de aceite tiene? ¿Mis actos y comportamiento están de acuerdo con el Evangelio? Todo se trata de ver cómo va mi intimidad con Dios, de ver cómo ando en el sentido de la caridad y la justicia con los demás. "Al atardecer de la vida, seremos examinados en el amor" (San Juan de la Cruz).

In Our Midst

One day my son came downstairs in our house and went into the kitchen to get himself a bowl of cereal. He had no idea I was in the front room quietly reading something on my smartphone. He poured his milk and reached to grab a spoon. At that moment, I simply said, "Hello." Startled, he jumped back from the silverware drawer and let out a scream. He would tell this story differently, but it certainly was a scream. He clutched his chest as if he had just seen a ghost.
All I wanted to do was say hello.

We have all been startled by someone when we thought we were all alone. Sometimes that person in our midst was simply quiet and hidden from our view. Other times, we simply have our head and mind in the clouds to the point we are ignoring the fact we are not alone.

At times that person we don't see is Jesus. He might seem quieter some days, but he should never be hidden from our view. He is always there with us, in others, and sharing our everyday moments. When we fail to see him in our midst, it is easy to act in ways we wouldn't if we saw him directly in front of us. We become less giving and more self-centered. No one wants to be surprised one day when suddenly they realize they were not alone, especially if the one who startles us is our God.

Thanksgiving

In today's Gospel Jesus challenges us to "stay awake" by taking time to seriously look at ourselves, the priorities of our lives, and how we are growing spiritually.
Ask yourself "What would Jesus Christ do?" and then provide a food donation to our pantry so that those who are suffering will be able to celebrate Thanksgiving.

Our 2026 Thanksgiving Food Drive is almost here.

Next week we will be providing you a bag with an attached list of food items that we would like you to purchase for our pantry.

PLEASE BE GENEROUS AS YOU WERE LAST YEAR...

Please consider joining our ministry, we would love to have you!

Contact our volunteer orientation coordinator Eldene at espelder@cox.net.

The food items that we need in the pantry this week are the following.

- Can of Yams (For Thanksgiving)
- Can of Corn
- Can of Green Beans

The pantry is open on the below days and times:

Mondays - 9:00 AM to 11:00 AM &
6:00 PM to 7:30 PM
Wednesdays – 9:00 AM to 11:00 AM
6:00 PM to 7:30 PM
Saturdays – 9:00 AM – 11:00 AM

St. Michael Indian School Connection

You did it, St. Joan of Arc! All families and angels from the Adopt a Family Project have been adopted. Our St. Michael Indian School Connection Team is beyond grateful. But we could still use your help! Please prayerfully consider making a monetary donation. It will help offset the cost of transporting and delivering the gift boxes to the Navajo Indian Reservation. Donations can be made on our parish website for "St. Michael Indian School Mission," or during our Collection Weekend, Nov 28 & 29.
Your generosity is appreciated more than you know.

AROUND THE PARISH

Parish Mission
Family of Faith Called to Live the Love of Christ

How do we do this?

- We are called to receive the broken, lame, and rejected and offer them a field hospital where they can be triaged and healed through the encounter with Christ.
- The Lord invites them to conversion of life as a result of his love, as he did for the woman at the well.
- We invite them into this home and family where they can live in community and grow to maturity in their life and faith.
- We invite them to keep growing in this love to full sanctity, ultimately so we all participate in the beatific vision with God.

Notice Regarding Hall Rentals

Due to limited resources, we are temporarily suspending all new hall rental bookings. If your event is not currently on the calendar or has not been approved, we kindly ask for your patience and understanding during this time.
Our plan is to resume accepting new rental requests at a later date to be determined. The only exception will be funeral luncheons, which will be considered on a case-by-case basis as the need arises.
We sincerely appreciate your patience, understanding, and cooperation as we navigate these temporary limitations.
Thank you for your continued prayers.

SJA PRAYER LINE

The Mission of the SJA Prayer Line Ministry is to provide an opportunity to support others in our community with special prayer requests. Members of the SJA Prayer Line offer their own prayers on the requestor's behalf.

Please contact Margo Enfield: 4prayeronly@gmail.com.

PRAYER REQUESTS

Please pray for the following requests that have been recently received either by the Prayer Line (4prayeronly@gmail.com), the bulletin, or both.

Dan... For Healing

For bulletin only submission requests, please email SJAbulletin@stjoanofarc.com

From the Hearts of our Children

After learning about the articles of the Mass, one of our kindergarteners asked another one if he'd like to pretend he was a priest offering her the Holy Eucharist. He immediately put on the correct ordinary time chasuble and extended to her the Body of Christ with much reverence!

Praying for Your Support

Since attending our Knights of Columbus's Pro-Life dinner this year, St Joan of Arc Preschool & Kindergarten has felt a calling to help those moms and children who are staying at Casa St Gianna (CSG), which is a Catholic home for pregnant women and children. CSG can provide 90- day housing for three women and their children at a time and is in North Phoenix at 35th Ave and Bell. It is run by Life Choices Women's Clinic. Our school would like to offer year-long service to them by collecting various items in need and transporting them to their facility. Along with providing a place to stay, CSG also provides resources to assist the moms to become financially independent and able to provide for themselves and their children. Please review their present Wish List and pray for providing an item on that list. All donations can be dropped off at the SJA school office Monday-Thursday from 8-3:30 or Friday from 8-1:30. Call our office at 602-867-9179 if you have any questions. Thank you for your generous support.

SJA PRESCHOOL

St Joan of Arc Preschool & Kindergarten would like to extend a heartfelt invitation to all our parishioners to attend the Flag Ceremony conducted by our American Heritage Girls that will take place outside of the preschool courtyard on Tuesday, November 10th at 9:15am. Support our girls and our veterans by attending!

Our very own SJA Seminarian John Miller, was in Rome to serve at his cousin's wedding, at which Fr. Nahrgang and Fr. Perera were concelebrants. Please continue to keep John in your prayers.

Lighting Candles in Church

Question: Why do Catholics light candles in church?

Answer:

Candles have been part of the Church's worship from the earliest times. In the days before electricity, candles and oil lamps were the ways that people lighted buildings. Even today, we often still depend on candles during power outages, relying on their flickering flames to bring light into the dark.

Like our ancestors, we also light candles on special occasions. Think about a festive family meal or a romantic dinner for two — there will often be candles on the table, special objects for a special event. We light candles on birthday cakes and carry them in processions. We also place candles at makeshift memorials that appear when there has been an accident or act of violence. In these moments, their light casts aside a different kind of darkness — the darkness of grief, fear, and death.

The custom of the early Christians lighting candles and lamps at the tombs of the martyrs gave way to the practice of having candles at Mass, honoring the sacredness of the celebration.

As Christians decorated their worship spaces with statues and icons, they would burn candles in front of sacred images and the relics of the saints, basically "shining a light" on what they held to be sacred. When pilgrims would visit these shrines, they would often bring candles to light before the image or relic. These candles came to be a symbol of the person, and their prayer and the burning these candles came to be understood as an extension and continuation of the prayer that was offered. What began as a practical way to provide light has come to be a symbol of the hopes, desires, loves, losses, fears, and faith of everyday Christians offering their prayers to God and his saints.

REFLECTIONS

Outside the Wedding Feast

By Colleen Jurkiewicz Dorman

Every time my husband tells me he needs to take our car in for an oil change, I groan: "Didn't we just do that, like, six months ago?"

"Yeah," he replies. "And like I told you six months ago, that's roughly how often it needs to be done."

If I didn't have him, I would forget to change that oil until the engine came to a grinding halt in the middle of the interstate. It's not that I'm incapable — I remember when we're about to run out of butter, when we need to scrub out the kitchen sink so it doesn't get nasty, when it's time to schedule the kids' annual doctor visits. I just don't even think about the oil.

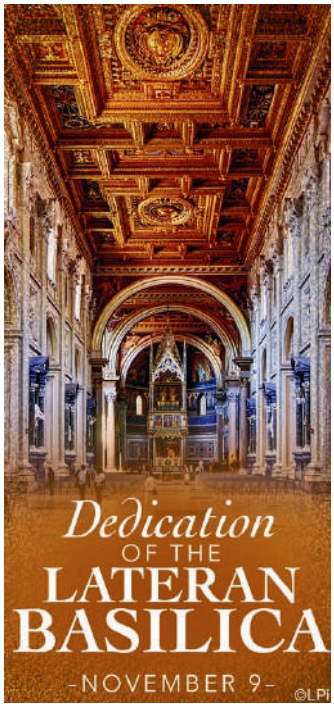

Why would I? My husband's on top of it.

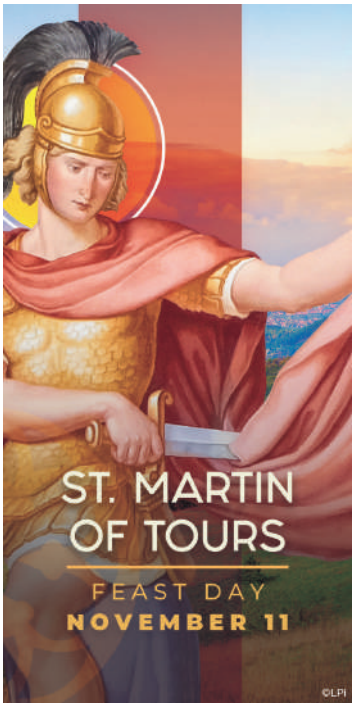

Our brains reflexively prioritize certain tasks, delegating the rest to the care of others we trust. I do it with the oil in the car. My husband does it with the groceries.

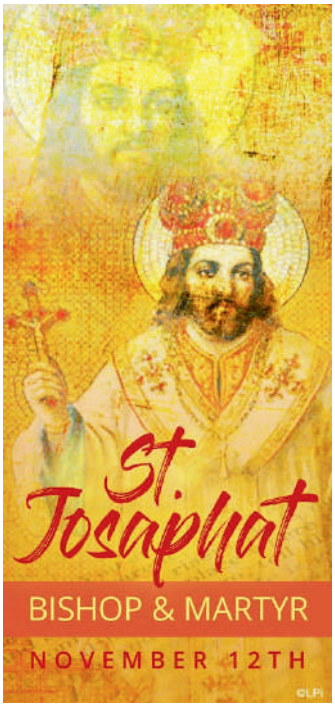

Sometimes — too often, in fact — we do it with our spiritual lives. We let it go. We don't think about it. We trust. God's got us. We'll focus on that tomorrow.

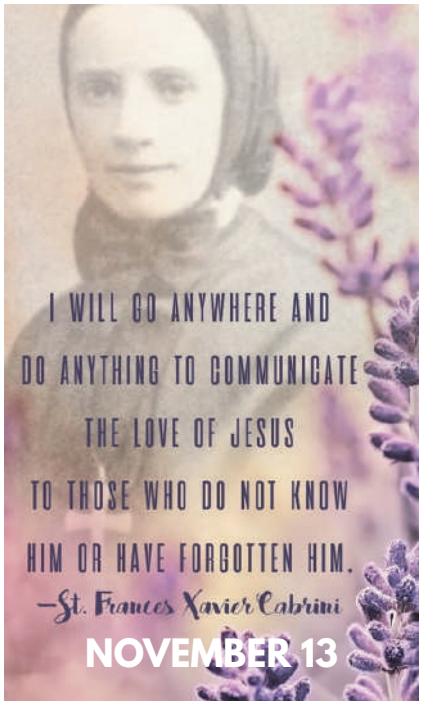

It's beautiful to have a relationship with God based in confidence, not in anxiety. But do we sometimes take this further than is healthy? In trusting that God loves us unconditionally, do we slip into the habit of de-prioritizing him? Do we linger too long outside the wedding feast, trimming our neglected lamps, forgetting that once the door closes, it also locks?

SAINTS OF THE WEEK

NOTICIAS

DIOS BENDIGA A NUESTROS VETERANOS

¿Por qué los católicos tienen en alta estima a los santos?

Pregunta: ¿Por qué los católicos tienen en alta estima a los santos?

Respuesta: Una de las afirmaciones de fe que hacemos al rezar el Credo Niceno y el Credo de los Apóstoles es que creemos en «la comunión de los santo. El Catecismo de la Iglesia Católica nos recuerda que esta comunión (que es otra forma de referirse a una comunidad) incluye a todos los fieles en la tierra, a las almas en el Purgatorio y a los hombres, mujeres y niños bienaventurados que están en el cielo. Esta enseñanza se fundamenta en nuestra creencia de que, a través del Bautismo, estamos unidos a Cristo y entre nosotros mediante vínculos que son incluso más fuertes que la muerte.

Por ello, desde los tiempos de la Iglesia primitiva, los cristianos han recurrido a otros creyentes —incluidos aquellos que nos han precedido— en busca de oración y ayuda, confiados en que Dios escucha las oraciones de todos sus hijos. Si bien pedimos a los santos (y los unos a los otros) que oren por nosotros y nos brinden su apoyo, debemos recordar que son ellos quienes se unen a nosotros en la oración; no obstante, es Dios quien nos bendice y nos santifica.

Al pensar en los santos que están en el cielo, debemos recordar que podemos acudir a ellos para pedir su intercesión y ayuda, ya que fueron seres humanos con limitaciones y defectos, al igual que nosotros. Esto significa que son capaces de comprender nuestras luchas, dudas, temores, alegrías y esperanzas. Pero, al conocer sus historias, también podemos empezar a reconocer que destacan en la historia de la Iglesia porque perseveraron en su compromiso de seguir a Cristo. Ya fueran personas ordenadas, religiosos o religiosas, mártires, esposos, esposas o incluso niños, todos ellos nos demuestran que la santidad es posible.

No solo podemos seguir su ejemplo, sino también beneficiarnos de su apoyo a través de la oración. Nuestra devoción a los santos, así como la gratitud por su testimonio, sus oraciones y su protección, también deben servirnos de inspiración, especialmente cuando tomamos conciencia de las necesidades de los demás o cuando otros nos piden que oremos por ellos. Estamos llamados a compartir las bendiciones que recibimos; esto forma parte, además, de nuestro propio camino de crecimiento en la santidad.
