A LETTER FROM OUR PASTOR

Happy Christ the King!

On this Solemnity of Christ the King, the Church invites us to contemplate a King unlike any other head of state or ruler of this world. Our lives are blessed whenever we acknowledge His presence in our Church in the Holy Eucharist. On this Solemn occasion, our Eucharistic King will be processed into the nearby streets of our neighborhood. He is a King that does not rule by keeping others at a distance or seeking his own comfort. He is the Good Shepherd who searches for the scattered and the King who identifies himself with those who are hungry, sick, lonely, or forgotten.

The prophet Ezekiel gives us a promise of His closeness and promise. That promise becomes visible with our Blessed Lord in the Eucharist. He is the Shepherd who comes to find us, and he is the King who will come in glory. In the Gospel, Christ describes the judgment of the nations. He separates the sheep from the goats and tells the righteous that when they fed the hungry, welcomed the stranger, clothed the naked, cared for the sick, and visited the imprisoned, they did these things to him. "whatever you didfor one of the least brothers of mine, you did for me" (Matthew 25:31–40)

We may expect to find Christ in impressive and powerful ways. Instead, he tells us to look for him among people whose needs can be easy to overlook. As we process into the streets as a parish family, we meet our neighbors, we encounter someone without food, a newcomer seeking welcome and entrance into the faith, a person who is inflicted with an illness, or someone who feels alone. Their dignity does not depend on whether we know their story or can solve every difficulty they face. Christ asks us to see them, respond with compassion, and serve them with the love we would offer him.

Christ the King gathers his flock and sends us out to seek those who are scattered. Pray for this openness in our parish and the continuation of the spreading the gospels everywhere we go!

Long live Christ the King!

Father Cruz

¡Feliz fiesta de Cristo Rey!

En esta solemnidad de Cristo Rey, la Iglesia nos invita a contemplar a un Rey diferente a cualquier otro jefe de Estado o gobernante de este mundo. Nuestras vidas son bendecidas cada vez que reconocemos Su presencia en nuestra Iglesia a través de la Sagrada Eucaristía. En esta ocasión solemne, nuestro Rey Eucarístico será llevado en procesión por las calles cercanas de nuestro vecindario. Él es un Rey que no gobierna manteniendo a los demás a distancia ni buscando su propia comodidad. Es el Buen Pastor que busca a los dispersos y el Rey que se identifica con los hambrientos, los enfermos, los solitarios o los olvidados.

El profeta Ezequiel nos da una promesa de su cercanía y de su fidelidad. Esa promesa se hace visible en nuestro Señor bendito en la Eucaristía. Él es el Pastor que viene a buscarnos, y es el Rey que vendrá en gloria. En el Evangelio, Cristo describe el juicio de las naciones. Separa las ovejas de las cabras y les dice a los justos que cuando alimentaron a los hambrientos, acogieron al extranjero, vistieron al desnudo, cuidaron a los enfermos y visitaron a los encarcelados, le hicieron eso a Él. "cuando lo hicieron con el más insignificante de mis hermanos, conmigo lo hicieron" (Mateo 25:31–40)

Podríamos esperar encontrar a Cristo de maneras impresionantes y poderosas. En cambio, él nos dice que lo busquemos entre las personas cuyas necesidades pueden pasar fácilmente desapercibidas. Al salir a las calles como familia parroquial, nos encontramos con nuestros vecinos, nos topamos con alguien que no tiene qué comer, un recién llegado que busca ser acogido e iniciarse en la fe, una persona que padece una enfermedad o alguien que se siente solo. Su dignidad no depende de si conocemos su historia o de si podemos resolver todas las dificultades que enfrentan. Cristo nos pide que los veamos, que respondamos con compasión y que los sirvamos con el amor que le ofreceríamos a Él.

Cristo Rey reúne a su rebaño y nos envía a buscar a los que están dispersos. ¡Oremos por esta apertura en nuestra parroquia y por que sigamos difundiendo el Evangelio dondequiera que vayamos!

¡Viva Cristo Rey!

Padre Cruz

EVERYDAY STEWARDSHIP

There Is Much to Be Done

Growing up Catholic means I must have heard a million times the passage in Matthew's Gospel about how doing things for the "least of these" means you have done them for Jesus. Okay, that is an exaggeration to make a point. But it has been a slogan for so many social justice activities, from clothing and canned food drives, to letter writing campaigns and peaceful protests.

Growing up I only knew how to help the least of these through the school and church activities of the time. Today, YouTube and GodTube are filled with videos of creative ways people reach out to one another. Have you seen the one about the pizza party for the homeless? How about the fake lottery ticket or the house bought from online donations for a poor man? There are even videos of people paying for the car behind them at the drive-through! The awesome thing about this is that it serves as a witness to others. It is not boasting but instead sharing the Good News. Giving and good stewardship can be contagious!

Our pastor has several times over the years handed out $10 bills to confirmation candidates and asked them to "pay it forward." They can keep the money or use it to make a difference in someone else's life. One teen planted a garden for an elderly woman. One bought ingredients for brownies and sold them to give even more than $10 to charity. The teens not only learned something about good stewardship in the process, but also served as great examples to the parish community.

As always, there is much to be done. The King is coming soon! Let's spread the news and some love at the same time!

Praying for Your Support

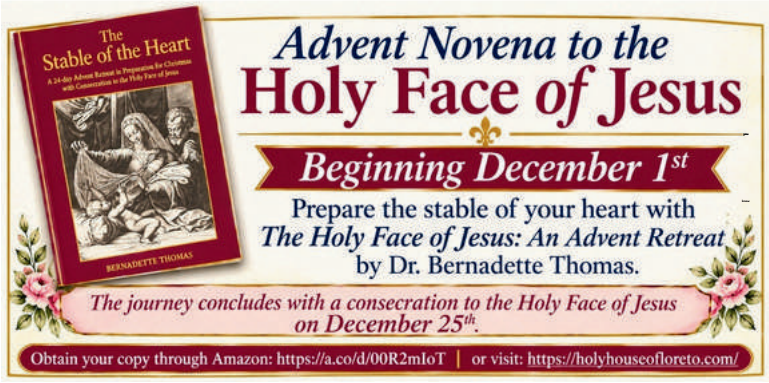

Since attending our Knights of Columbus's Pro-Life dinner this year, St Joan of Arc Preschool & Kindergarten has felt a calling to help those moms and children who are staying at Casa St Gianna (CSG), which is a Catholic home for pregnant women and children. CSG can provide 90- day housing for three women and their children at a time and is in North Phoenix at 35th Ave and Bell. It is run by Life Choices Women's Clinic. Our school would like to offer year-long service to them by collecting various items in need and transporting them to their facility. Along with providing a place to stay, CSG also provides resources to assist the moms to become financially independent and able to provide for themselves and their children. Please review their present Wish List and pray for providing an item on that list. All donations can be dropped off at the SJA school office Monday-Thursday from 8-3:30 or Friday from 8-1:30. Call our office at 602-867-9179 if you have any questions. Thank you for your generous support.

REFLECTIONS

By Colleen Jurkiewicz Dorman

Kings and Peace

It's a little ironic that, when Pope Pius XI instituted the Feast of Christ the King, he did so in a world that was growing awfully weary of kings.

The year was 1925. World War I had ended only seven years before. Most of Europe's monarchies were torn asunder in the conflict, yielding to other forms of government more deferential to popular opinion.

But there was a problem. The kings were gone, but still the world did not know peace — and it certainly didn't know justice. The Pope was unflinching in his words: "discord," "rivalries," "insatiable greed," "selfishness," "neglect (of) duty…society in a word, shaken to its foundations and on the way to ruin," he lamented in his encyclical Quas primas, describing the state of the world.

Americans are very proud that we've never bent the knee to a monarch, and I, for one, am a big fan of democratic republics like ours. But I don't think tyranny is inherent to — or prevented by — any particular form of government. I think any human can become an oppressor if they make the choice to.

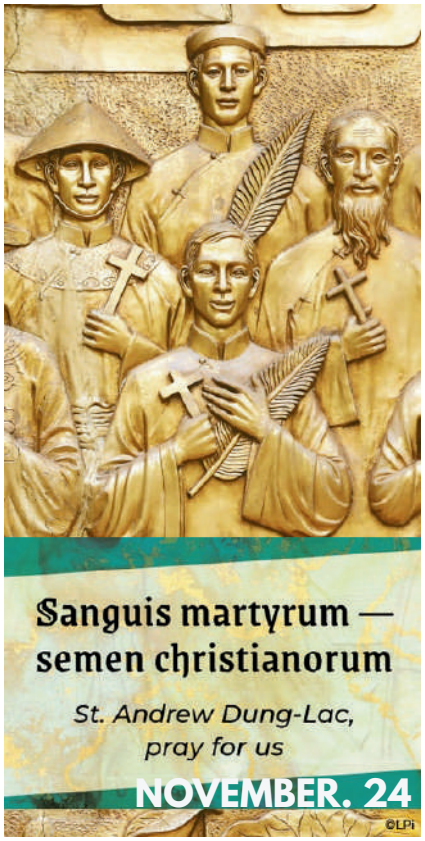

The question was never what prevented tyranny. The question was who. And the answer is: only a king who "demands of (his) subjects a spirit of detachment from riches and earthly things, and a spirit of gentleness," wrote Pope Pius XI. A king whose subjects "hunger and thirst after justice" and who "deny themselves and carry the cross."

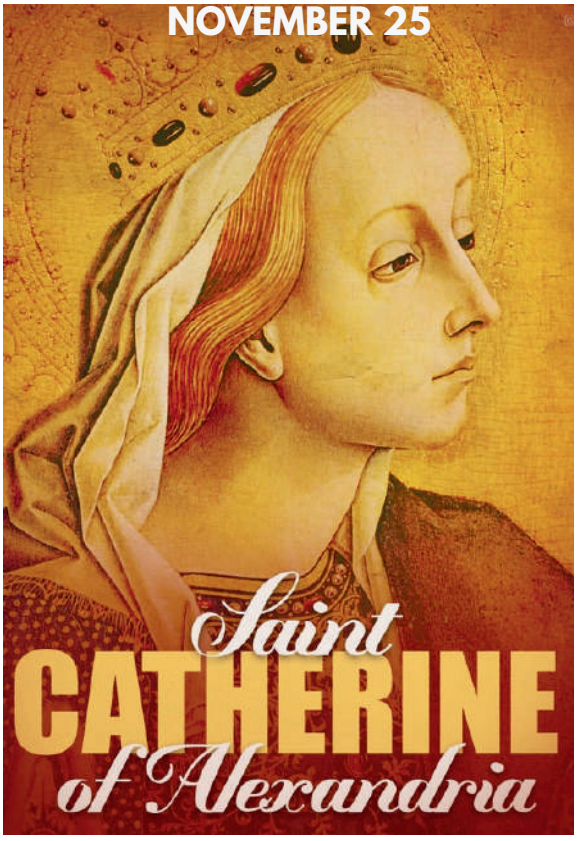

There has only ever been one such king. There has only ever been one such kingdom.

Today, we bend the knee.

NOTICIAS

¿Por qué casarse en una iglesia?

Pregunta:
¿Por qué se exige a los católicos que contraigan matrimonio en una iglesia, y no al aire libre o en otro lugar?

Respuesta:
Dado que el sacramento del matrimonio es una alianza sagrada entre los esposos, su celebración es mucho más que un simple acontecimiento social o familiar. Por ello, la norma de celebrar el sacramento en una iglesia ayuda a reforzar el sentido profundo del matrimonio cristiano. Para mayor claridad, cabe añadir que la tradición de la Iglesia incluye habitualmente la celebración de la Misa cuando los contrayentes son ambos católicos; por tanto, la iglesia o la capilla constituyen el marco ideal. No obstante, por motivos especiales —que varían según la diócesis—, el obispo local puede autorizar que el matrimonio se celebre en otro lugar adecuado.
